CLERK: Mr. President, one item and that is a message from the Governor to the Clerk. (Read message from the Governor regarding LB 286, LB 286A, LB 579, LB 579A, LB 759, LB 763, LB 950, LB 1253, LB 1254, LB 284, LB 284A, LB 433, LB 575, LB 575A, LB 1123, LB 788, LB 813, LB 842, LB 925, LB 925A, LB 853, LB 851, and LB 851A. See page 2333 of the Legislative Journal.) That is all that I have, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, we are ready to go on Final Reading. Will you please return to your seats and we'll begin shortly. Gentlemen, under the north balcony, would you please...gentlemen under the north balcony, would you please return to your seats and we'll begin Final Reading. Thank you. Mr. Clerk, we'll begin with 1017.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Rod Johnson would move to return 1017 to Select File for purposes of striking the enacting clause.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Rod Johnson.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Mr. President, not to take a lot of time, but I just wanted to bring to the attention of the body that by the adoption of LB 1017 I think you are going to see that we may be putting one more nail in the coffin, as far as I'm concerned, on the occasional sales issue that to me is still a running battle. But by making it...or passing this law, this bill, I have some concerns that have been brought to me by Senator Haberman and Senator Schmit and others that we may be locking ourselves into something again that just sort of solidifies this whole concept of taxing occasional sales or farm sales, which I oppose. I made motions on that this year, unfortunately been unsuccessful. I don't know if I can be successful in the future or not, but I'm going to continue to try. Senator Johnson, of course, will oppose me on this. But that is all part of the political process. But I did want to raise the point that you may be locking in a little bit more tight the occasional sales provision, if that is in fact what you want. Personally I do not, and I'm planning to oppose the bill, and I'll withdraw the motion at this time.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, anything else on it?

CLERK: No, sir.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Please read the bill.
